

DIRECTORATE OF INTELLIGENCE

Central Intelligence Bulletin

	i oh secier
5X1	c 196
	28 October 1969

Approved For	Release 2	003/03/28 •	CIA-RDP79T	00975Δ014	300100002-5
Approved For i	release z	003/03/20.	CIA-NDF 13 I	003/ JAU 140	300100002-3

28 October 1969

25X1

25X1

Central Intelligence Bulletin

CONTENTS

Pakistan: Election timetable (Page 7)

25X1

Next 5 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2003/03/28 : CIA-RDP79T00975A014800100002-5	25X1
--	------

NOTES	2
Pakistan: President Yahya Khan may announce a definite timeframe for elections before the end of November. the government believes that if electoral rolls are	2
definite timeframe for elections before the end of	=
definite timeframe for elections before the end of November. the government believes that if electoral rolls are completed by next June, as now planned, a constituent assembly could be elected and given three months to draw up a constitution. The martial law regime could then relinquish power to an elected civilian government around September 1970. Influential Bengali pole	======================================
definite timeframe for elections before the end of November. the government believes that if electoral rolls are completed by next June, as now planned, a constituent assembly could be elected and given three months to draw up a constitution. The martial law regime could then relinquish power to an elected civilian government around September 1970. Influential Bengali politician Mujibur Rahman is apparently playing a pivotarole in shaping the election plans. Both he and East Pakistan Governor Ahsan strongly favor earlier elections, but they believe that volatile East Pakistan	=
definite timeframe for elections before the end of November. the government believes that if electoral rolls are completed by next June, as now planned, a constituent assembly could be elected and given three months to draw up a constitution. The martial law regime could then relinquish power to an elected civilian government around September 1970. Influential Bengali politician Mujibur Rahman is apparently playing a pivot role in shaping the election plans. Both he and East Pakistan Governor Ahsan strongly favor earlier elec-	d al
definite timeframe for elections before the end of November. the government believes that if electoral rolls are completed by next June, as now planned, a constituent assembly could be elected and given three months to draw up a constitution. The martial law regime could then relinquish power to an elected civilian government around September 1970. Influential Bengali politician Mujibur Rahman is apparently playing a pivote role in shaping the election plans. Both he and East Pakistan Governor Ahsan strongly favor earlier elections, but they believe that volatile East Pakistan will remain manageable if Yahya announces the above	d al
definite timeframe for elections before the end of November. the government believes that if electoral rolls are completed by next June, as now planned, a constituent assembly could be elected and given three months to draw up a constitution. The martial law regime could then relinquish power to an elected civilian government around September 1970. Influential Bengali politician Mujibur Rahman is apparently playing a pivote role in shaping the election plans. Both he and East Pakistan Governor Ahsan strongly favor earlier elections, but they believe that volatile East Pakistan will remain manageable if Yahya announces the above	3 - al

Approved For Release 2003/03/28 : CIA-RDP79T00975A014800100002-5

25X1

Top Secret